We saw a lot of action up here on the hill this week. Buyers came from all around to buy some good replacement cattle. Bred cows and pairs sold very well considering the shortness of rainfall this year. As for the packer cow market it was steady to a few cents higher on the smaller carcass cows. Calf market was on fire this week. Buyers were aggressive especially on cattle #500 up. I would call this week's calf market $5 to $10 higher on #1 class cattle. #2 cattle are steady and still at a discount price.
