Some plainer and hard to place lower grade calves fall below these figures.

This week's market we saw some new highs for almost all weight classes of steers and heifers. On the #1 Quality cattle we saw some $5 to up to $20 highs this week. With moisture predicted in the future buyers are more aggressive with hope that turn out cattle will have a cheaper cost of gain. #2 cattle saw a little more attention than previous week's, but they are still trailing behind good quality worked cattle. Packer market remains steady with last week.
