Some plainer and hard to place lower grade calves fall below these figures. **

What a great solid run of cattle we had. The market still seemed to hold strong on #1 quality cattle. As for the #2 calves we are starting to see a less eye appeal on them. Still bringing a good dollar figure just not as solid demand as there once was before, as heat and dry conditions start to play a role in this market. Packer cows and bulls came on strong this week as, high packer cow was $111 cwt and top packer bull was $134 cwt. A lot of dollar figures in the packer market.
