Some plainer and hard to place lower grade calves fall below these figures. **

Another great week up on the hill at KCA. The market seems to want to hold strong and stay steady with a few classes of cattle even stronger. We saw a stronger demand this week from the #500 up cattle. Quality is key and when you have a quality calf to put in front of the buyers it sure helps their decision-making process easier. Packer cows and bulls remained strong with a consistent market with the previous week.
