Some plainer and hard to place lower grade calves fall below these figures. **

What a great way to start the month of October. A good amount of moisture and high-priced cattle always make a great sign going into the fall. Feeder steers and heifers gained some ground on a few classes of cattle making averages and highs upwards of $5 to $7 cwt higher. Packer cows and bulls seem to have gained a little more ground as well as the rainfall slowed down some of the packers coming to town. Across the country.
